St. Andrew’s Notices for Sunday April 5th Palm Sunday

Sunday Eucharist

Rvd. Kate is again live-streaming on YouTube, hopefully without last week’s technical hitches. You can find her by searching for “St Marys Marston”.

Alternatively, you have an early chance to see Rvd. Dominic at work by searching YouTube for “St Michaels Woolmer Green”.

Easter Sunday

The Sunrise Service in Ampthill Park will not now take place but Rev Silas Wood (the Methodist minister) will be at Katherine’s Cross at 6am, where he will be reading the Easter story. This means that there will still be a witness at that time.

Food shopping

We have plenty of volunteers willing to help with shopping. Contact Nigel P if you cannot get out and need help with groceries or prescriptions.

Home deliveries

Waterdene of Leighton Buzzard are able to bring groceries ordered online, for next day delivery if you wish! Orders need to be over £50 and many of their products are in catering-sized packs. They seem to have most items in stock and have very friendly staff.

Food bank

While the church is locked, the food bank crate is now in the porch.

Recently departed

We are very sad to report the death of Pamela Hart.

Prayer List

Please continue to pray for those on our sick list: Young Alice, Harry Banks, Polly Barclay, Emma Brindle, Karen Brown, Mandy Daly, Eric Edwin, Ed Freeman, Ed Fuller, Peter Haslett, Tim Hele, Margaret Kech, Judith Latham, Victoria Martin, Susan Pearson, Doreen Simmons, Barbara Simpson, Hazel Suffolk, Anthony Swain, Nick Timms, Clare Walker, Daphne Whitehouse, Tony Whitehouse, Gary Williamson, Hilary Wilson, Sarah Wilson, Sandra Wootton (An Axon’s sister-in-law.)
